Te preguntarán

¿Para qué me sirve el calendario financiero?

Básicamente, un calendario financiero es una forma de dar un seguimiento diario de tus gastos e ingresos. Así como un calendario normal te ayuda a recordar tus compromisos, el financiero se usa para registrar cuentas, objetivos, compras y gastos en las fechas en que deberían ocurrir.

¿Por qué tener un calendario financiero?

¿Recuerdas aquella cuenta pendiente de pagar que te generó intereses por no liquidarla a tiempo? El calendario financiero sirve para evitar que esto vuelva a suceder.

“Pero mi memoria es muy buena, no creo necesitar esta herramienta”. Puede que sea cierto, ya que algunas personas se las arreglan para organizar sus compromisos mentalmente. Pero tener un calendario financiero va más allá de olvidarse de las fechas de vencimiento. También te ayuda a visualizar cuánto estás gastando y dónde (e incluso hasta comenzar un ahorro).
